Grant Writing

VIRTUAL TRAINING

August 7-8, 2025 | 9am–4pm Mountain Time

TRAINING

This 2-day training will provide attendees with a guide to the basics of grant writing. This training will discuss the steps for successful grant writing from getting organized, finding funding sources, and writing the proposal. The training will also review the essential components for grant writing and best practices for a strong proposal process.

TRAINING REGISTRATION

Registration for this training is at no cost to Tribal housing professionals, but you must register to attend. Registration is available online at https://bit.ly/GrantWriting\_August2025.

TRAINER

Deborah Webster

As Principal of Concept Consulting Group, LLC, Ms. Webster assists TDHEs and Tribes on planning, financing and project management for affordable and mixed income housing development. As an experienced on-the-ground developer, she helps her clients design and implement programs and housing projects and financing tools that are realistic and practical. Ms. Webster has 38 years' experience in affordable housing beginning in Baltimore, Maryland in 1986 and in 1995 co-founded the Enterprise Community Partners national Native American Program based in New Mexico, serving as its director until 2006.

Aneva Yazzie

Aneva Yazzie is a former HUD ONAP regulator and has worked over 35 combined years in the federal Indian Housing, state housing finance agency, tribal housing entity and private sectors in all aspects of Indian housing management and development arena. As CEO of the largest tribal housing entity, she improved housing access, streamlined project expenditures, maintained federal compliance, and deployed leveraged funding strategies. She contributed to NAHASDA regulatory improvements as part of the IHBG Formula Negotiated Rulemaking Committee. She now offers expertise and consulting services, providing training and technical assistance on NAHASDA, OMB 2 CFR 200, and other related federal laws to Tribes/TDHEs, HUD, and other entities.
