

ONAP TRAINING

Formula Current Assisted Stock (FCAS)

VIRTUAL TRAINING

June 4, 2024 | 10:00 am – 1:00 pm Pacific Time

TRAINING

This training will provide attendees with an understanding of Formula Current Assisted Stock (FCAS) and how it impacts the Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG) Formula Allocation. The training will review how to determine FCAS eligibility and FCAS reporting on the Formula Response Form. The discussion will highlight how and when to report units that are conveyance eligible, vacant, and converted as well as what to do if project counts do not match.

TRAINING REGISTRATION

Registration for this training is FREE, but you must register to attend. Registration is available online at https://bit.ly/FormularCurrentAssistedStock_June-4-2024.

INSTRUCTIONS AND MATERIALS

A link to electronic materials will be emailed by Friday, May 31, 2024.

TECHNOLOGY NEEDED

The training will be presented via an online platform. Participants will need a smart device (computer, laptop, tablet, or phone) with internet or WiFi connection. A web camera is not required but will be utilized if available.

TRAINERS

Mindi D'Angelo, FirstPic, Inc. - Ms. D'Angelo is the Senior Vice President at FirstPic, Inc. and has over 20 years of experience working with the Office of Native American Programs (ONAP), Tribes, and tribally designated housing entities (TDHEs). Since 2007, Ms. D'Angelo has directed and served as the subject matter expert for the Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG) Formula Customer Service Center, which assists ONAP with the formula maintenance and operations of the IHBG program, regulated under the Native American Housing Assistance and Self Determination Act of 1996 (NAHASDA) and serving approximately 590 American Indian Tribes and Alaska Native Villages and/or corporation recipients. Key activities include providing HUD with collection, statistical, and policy analysis; running the data analysis for the IHBG formula allocations for all participating Tribes; notifying Tribes of their allocations; providing remote TA to all Tribes and TDHEs; conducting on-site assessments to provide TA, data validation, and accountability; producing a range of specialized and routine reports; and assessing and evaluating Census Data challenges. Ms. D'Angelo also provided technical and logistical support IHBG Formula Negotiated Rulemaking in 2013-2016. In addition to her work with the IHBG Formula,

Ms. D'Angelo oversees training and technical assistance across a wide array of topics affecting the growth of Native American/Alaskan Native Housing programs including: expanding affordable housing activities; Emergency Rental Assistance and American Rescue Plan implementation and reporting; Veteran's Affairs Supportive Housing implementation, strategic planning; development and planning; capacity building; grants and financial management; environmental review; procurement; community development; resident services; policy development; self-monitoring; Low-Income Housing Tax Credits; admissions and occupancy; energy efficiency; and disaster/emergency recovery. She also assists the National Congress of American Indians manage a microgrants program designed to help Tribes fill gaps in current tribal victim services and/or to develop or expand the ability of tribal victim assistance programs to provide services.

Odalis Vicencio, FirstPic, Inc. - Ms. Vicencio provides technical support and customer service to Tribes, tribally designated housing entities (TDHEs), and HUD staff through the IHBG Formula Customer Service Center. She is responsible for researching and drafting responses to tribal requests for data changes; providing technical support to Tribes and TDHEs toll free hotline; tracking of all incoming and outgoing correspondence; and generating weekly and monthly progress reports to HUD.