ONAP TRAINING
Program Income

VIRTUAL TRAINING

September 15-16, 2025 | 9am–1pm Central Time

TRAINING

This 2-day training provides attendees with an overview and better understanding of program income under NAHASDA. The training will discuss sources of program income and how to calculate it. Attendees will also learn how to appropriately spend and report program income.

TRAINING REGISTRATION

Registration for this training is at no cost to Tribal housing professionals, but you must register to attend. Registration is available online at https://bit.ly/Reg_ProgIncome_Sept_15_2025.

TRAINER

Christine Dennis
Christine Dennis is a CPA registered in Oklahoma with over 28 years of experience in Tribal Housing and Tribal Government. As a former auditor, Ms. Dennis has a full understanding and knowledge of the HUD Compliance Manual issued annually, as well as knowledge of the grant process and reporting requirements for all NAHASDA programs. Ms. Dennis is a frequent provider of admissions and occupancy, procurement, and self-monitoring training for HUD providers. She has also developed and presented training courses in the above subjects through HUD regional offices and works with ONAP to stay current on all developments in HUD regulations and changing developments.

TECHNOLOGY NEEDED

The training will be presented via an online platform. Participants will need a smart device (computer, laptop, tablet, or phone) with internet or WiFi connection.

INSTRUCTIONS AND MATERIALS

An email with the training material link(s) and final instructions will be sent by Friday, September 12, 2025.
