

ONAP TRAINING

NAHASDA Essentials

VIRTUAL TRAINING

June 22-24, 2021 | 9:00 am - 3:00 pm Pacific Time

OVERVIEW

Under the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996 (NAHASDA) (25 U.S.C. 4101 et seq.), HUD provides grants, loan guarantees, and technical assistance to Indian tribes and Alaska Native villages for the development and operation of low-income housing in Indian areas. Grants are made to eligible recipients under the Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG) program. Grantees receiving funds under this program are responsible for meeting the requirements of NAHASDA and its implementing regulations.

TRAINING

This exciting and interactive 3-day training will provide attendees with a comprehensive introduction to NAHASDA. Participants will become familiar with all program activities, including rental housing, homebuyer programs, rehabilitation, and housing and crime prevention services. Other major topics that will be covered include the IHBG formula, eligible program participants, income verifications, other federal requirements, financial management and program administration. This foundational course will acquaint tribal and TDHE staff with the basic requirements of the IHBG Program and opportunities that are available.

Due to the current coronavirus pandemic, this training is being offered virtually.

INSTRUCTIONS AND MATERIALS

Instructions on how to access the virtual training and a link to electronic materials will be emailed by Wednesday, June 16 2021.

TECHNOLOGY NEEDED

The training will be presented via an online platform. Participants will need a smart device (computer, laptop, tablet, or phone) with internet or WiFi connection. A web camera is not required but will be

TRAINING REGISTRATION

Registration for this training is FREE, but you must register to attend. Registration is available online at <http://bit.ly/NAHEssJune21>.

TRAINERS

Sonja Key—In addition to being a seasoned trainer, Ms. Key brings extensive experience in all aspects of managing Indian Housing programs, including NAHASDA and ICDBG. For more than 17 years, Ms. Key worked for the Southern Plains Office of Native American Programs (SPONAP), serving as the Director of Grants Management for 5 of those years. She served in a variety of other positions within SPONAP. While working with HUD, she was recognized under HUD's Best Practices Awards for an innovative and successful program partnership with the Army Corps of Engineers that assisted tribes within Region VI with development of housing, community and economic development projects and received a Superior Accomplishment Award 3 years in a row. As an appraiser for Indian Housing Development, her duties included completion and approval of the environmental reviews. She currently provides TTA to tribes as a private consultant.

Charles Anderson—With education and experience in Accounting and Finance, and over thirty years' experience in both Public and Indian Housing management, training and consulting, Charles Anderson's unique background has proved successful in providing technical assistance and training to many housing organizations throughout the country. Mr. Anderson's housing experience includes seven years as an Indian Housing Executive Director, seven years as Operations Manager for the fifth largest Housing Authority in Washington, three years as a Training and Technical Assistance Specialist for the National American Indian Housing Council, and for the past twenty years as owner of Northwest Housing Consultants, LLC, located in Olympia, Washington. Charles also currently serves as Executive Director of the Northwest Indian Housing Association. Charles Anderson has direct experience in the implementation and management of a number of housing programs including rental housing, homeownership housing, Rental Assistance, Title VI and Section 184 Loan Guarantee programs, Low Income Housing Tax Credits, and Rural Housing 515 and Farm Worker Housing.

